FULL THERAPEUTIC DISCLOSURE CONTRACT

Therapeutic Disclosure Contract

This Therapeutic Disclosure Contract is an agreement between:

Charles Dussé (PhD, Certified Mentor) and _ _ _ _ _ _ _ _ _ _ _ _ _ _ (Name of Husband), and Carin Dussé (Psychology Honours, APSATS CCPS) and _ _ _ _ _ _ _ _ _ _ _ _ _ _ (Name of Wife).

All parties have rights and responsibilities which can essentially be summed up in that all are committed to the principles of honesty, integrity and confidentiality while undertaking to complete the pre-evaluation phase, the full disclosure preparation itself and post disclosure actions (Emotional Impact and Restitution Response) before considering the process as fully completed and signed off. This does not imply that earlier termination cannot be requested or effected but it would then mean that the complete Redemptive Reconciliation process cannot be signed off as fully completed.

Terms and Conditions

1. All required questionnaires and assignments are to be fully completed and submitted a day before the next session.
2. All sessions will be 50 to 60 minutes and all sessions for the month are to be settled in advance via PayPal or BACS.
3. The clients can be assured of a safe environment of full confidentiality and privacy – any requests of a therapeutic or practical nature will be honoured respectfully and reasonably. Conversely, the clients are to maintain the same principle of confidentiality which implies avoiding any further disclosures from the husband to his wife whatsoever until the formal therapeutic disclosure date when preparation will have been completed.
4. The husband is to be committed in treating his wife with compassion and empathy, cognisant of the fact that that she is simultaneously preparing for the therapeutic disclosure with her therapist as well.
